BATTELL'S LIVING AGE,

E. LITTELL & Co. have just published the first number of a new series of this valuable work, which has been favorably known to the public for the last fourteen years as one of the most interesting and valuable publications of the day. It is a weekly magazine of sixty-four large pages, containing the most valuable and interesting Foreign Literature of the day, selected from the Quarterly, Monthly and Weekly publications of Great Britain, and embracing the productions of the most distinguished writers of the age, such as Macaulay, Carlyle, Dickens, Thackeray, Miss Mulock, Miss Kavanagh, Miss Pardoe, Sir David Brewster, Sir James Mackintosh, Sir John Herschel, Alexander Humboldt, Hallam, Milman, Lyell, Buckland, Agassiz, Owen, Faraday, Dana, Silliman, Tait, Alison, Prescott, Motley, Bancroft, Irving, Everett, Webster, Clay, Calhoun, Benton, Cass, Dix, Seward, Wilson, Hale, Chase, Bayard, Choate, Preston, Legaré, Hayne, Hugo, Lamartine, Thiers, Guizot, Cousin, Michelet, Humboldt, Ranke, Tieck, Goethe, Uhland, Heine, Richter, Schiller, Neander, Tholuck, Hengstenberg, Strauss, Bremer, Andersen, Mrs. Austin, Mrs. Jameson, Mrs. Somerville, Miss Martineau, Miss Sedgwick, Mrs. Child, Mrs. Norton, Mrs. Hemans, Mrs. Sigourney, Jane Taylor, Caroline Fry, Miss Edgeworth, Miss Berry, Miss Mitford, Miss Landon, Miss Strickland, Miss Costello, Miss Pardoe, Mrs. Jameson, Mrs. Somerville, Miss Martineau, Miss Sedgwick, Mrs. Child, Mrs. Norton, Mrs. Hemans, Mrs. Sigourney, Jane Taylor, Caroline Fry, Miss Edgeworth, Miss Berry, Miss Mitford, Miss Landon, Miss Strickland, Miss Costello, Miss Pardoe, and the most eminent writers in Science, Politics, Art, Biography, Criticism, Morals, Religion, Poetry and the Drama.

The Living Age is published every Saturday by E. LITTELL & Co., at Boston, and is for sale by the Agents in Providence, Newport, Fall River, New Bedford, Taunton, and other towns in the vicinity.

Boston, December 28th, 1849.

We, the undersigned, have been in the habit of taking the Living Age from the commencement of the present year, and have found it the most interesting and valuable publication of the day. We have also found it a very cheap publication, as it contains more matter than any other publication of the kind. We therefore recommend it to all who wish to obtain a correct knowledge of the literature of the day.

NEWPORT.

BY CLEVESTON & NORMAN,

127 THAMES STREET.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, JUNE 19, 1850.

☞Mr. Allen, a Telegraph Contractor, is now in town, endeavoring to secure the stock for the continuation of the line from Fall River to this place. If two thousand dollars is subscribed here, Mr. Allen will take the balance of the stock himself, and the Telegraph will be in operation in four weeks from this time. We seriously call upon our citizens to be great importance of this matter to them. Know it and feel it, for very many times have seen the time when they were very anxious to avail themselves of this, one of the greatest and most important of modern discoveries. In the summer it would be of immense importance both to citizens and strangers, and the receipts of the office would be large, thus warranting a good dividend to stockholders. If this Telegraph can be built now, we will guarantee to the owners that they shall have a room and the Telegraph operator, at present, free of all expense; this will be at least $300 per annum to the stock, which will be divided among the stockholders, and it is sure to pay from 10 to 15 per cent per annum. So that those who contribute to build up the line will not only have the benefit from it, in a general point of view, to the exception of newspaper, &c., but they will also have a good dividend on their stock. If people will only act now, and manifest a little interest in the matter, we can have the Telegraph in operation in one month—and when it is once built, the only wonder will be that it has not been erected sooner.—Several efforts have been made, during the last two or four years, to accomplish this object, but as yet have all forcibly failed; and we say to-day that this is the last effort which will probably be made by any one. Therefore, if our citizens will do anything, if they desire to keep pace at all with the rapid and safe progression of the age, let them come forward, and each one subscribe a few dollars towards this great and valuable public improvement, and we shall have the whole work accomplished in a few days.

Mr. Allen will call upon each citizen as he thinks may take stock, and we trust that he will meet with much success.—Those who desire to subscribe, should step into the Mr. Allen will please leave their names at the office immediately, as work cannot be done quickly. The books are open for inspection and visitors to subscribe.

☞One Mary Findlay, a fallen daughter of Erin's green Isle, paid us a visit, yesterday, in a state of beastly intoxication.—She danced and sang, and drew quite a crowd around the building. Mary was exceedingly anxious to make the acquaintance of the Mayor, she said. We backed out for some of the "Fathers," but failed to accomodate her in their presence; but in the office were to be found, at that moment, We hadn't time for the "Chief of Police" while Mary was "around," but like the spirits of the misty deep, they would not come at our bidding. After a while, we got Mary into the street, and she strolled up along, inducing the air melodious with her music. Mary announced herself decidedly in favor of the late "Rotary" system; she most likely is a worthy champion.

She was afterwards taken by officer Searle, and locked up.

John A. Tucker, of Portsmouth, committed suicide, Monday afternoon, by hanging himself in his barn; his health had been poor for some time, and he was laboring under a severe depression of spirits. ☞The Police Court had a small business of those who were said to be drunk and disorderly in our streets, yesterday, some of the parties and witnesses were lords of a spacious pharynx.

☞The steamer Metamora arrived daily, and lays at the Long Wharf at the Hotels.

A NEW COMEDY.—We announced in the press of Appleton & Co., a new comedy, entitled THE VERY ACE, by Edward S. Gould, Esq., of New York. Having heard this performance very well individual from the manuscript of the author, we are able to speak knowingly concerning it. It would prove an exceedingly successful one, by its absorbing interest, its brilliant points, its humorous delineations of character. The characters are all well sustained, and each one subscribe a few dollars towards this great and valuable public improvement, and we shall have the whole work accomplished in a few days.

Mr. Allen will call upon each citizen as he thinks may take stock, and we trust that he will meet with much success.—Those who desire to subscribe, should step into the Mr. Allen will please leave their names at the office immediately, as work cannot be done quickly. Mr. Editor:—

There seems to be some difference of opinion as to the meaning of "no exhibitions to be permitted on the Sabbath." It is declared that no shop, store or other place of business or trade, &c., shall hereafter be opened on Sunday, &c., except Licensed Taverns and Oyster stores. Now the query is who is Mary Stokes and exempt from the operation of this law or not. Not being named, and being permitted to labor in their vocation, the keepers of stables must be considered a privileged class. This is the most lucrative as well as the most noisy business that is followed, and why they are classed with the vendors of edibles and jellies, is a mystery past finding out. We do not mean to be captious or find fault, and do not expect miracles to be performed; but such glaring inconsistencies must strike every one, and call for some explanation. We hope to be enlightened on the subject.

EXAMINATION OF LOPEZ.—The New Orleans Delta of June 6 gives a full report of the arrest, or more properly the voluntary surrender, of Narciso Lopez, who commanded the men engaged in the attack upon Cardenas. The prisoner was all in the United States District Court on the 7th, with his friends, before Judge McCaleb.—His counsel were Messrs. Preatas and Henderson. The arrest was made upon an affidavit put in by the Spanish consul, Juan Y. Iribarde. Objection was made by prisoner's counsel that the affidavit was not explicit enough; that it set forth opinions rather than facts. Mr. Hunton, the district attorney, ably replied, and contended that the affidavit was abundant ground for the arrest. The Spanish consul had made it at Mr. Hunton's request.—The Delta adds:—

At the conclusion of Mr. Hunton's speech, Judge McCaleb said that as the arrest was made the whole day, he was inclined to further examine the case with some care. He would, therefore, defer the matter until to-morrow.

The deputy marshal then inquired what would be done with the prisoner.

Judge McCaleb—He is in your custody.

Mr. Moore said, for the accused, that Gen. Lopez hoped to be courteously treated like any other prisoner, as he knew no distinction of classes in the discharge of this duty.

Mr. Read then then proposed to give bail for Gen. Lopez in the sum of $5000, and Mr. Preatas was fixed at $2000, and signed by Read and Duncan.

The Delta of the 8th has the following very interesting fact in connection with the proceedings:

As Gen. Lopez was handing his recognizance to Mr. Preatas, it fell open in the crowd and Lopez observed a pocket. The general politely gave the hint to the bail in the usual way, when, instead of a pocket-book, a pocket-handkerchief was exposed. The hint was accepted, and the pocket-book was handed with success.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, Monday, June 17.

SENATE. The Senate were occupied more than an hour in receiving petitions and for consideration of private bills, &c.

Mr. Dix reported back to the Senate, amended, Mr. Benton's bill in favor of granting land to the state of Missouri.

The deficiency bill and the China treaty bill, from the House, were appropriately referred.

The consideration of the compromise bills was then resumed.

Mr. Butler spoke briefly.

Mr. Webster followed and intimated his belief that slavery could not go to Utah by the nature of the soil, and justified his vote against the Wilmot proviso on that ground.

HOUSE. Mr. Bailey offered a resolution making the general appropriation bill the order of the day for Monday next. Objections arising, Mr. Ashmun asked if the civil and diplomatic bill was reported.

Mr. Bayly answered that it had not, but that it would be ready as the committee could be got together.

Mr. Ashmun then moved that it should be struck from the motion.

The yeas and nays were ordered.

NEW ORLEANS, Saturday, June 15.

We have received intelligence from Havana as late as the 10th inst., and are happy to state that the Spanish Government had yielded to the representations of our Consul, aided by other American authorities, and other passing through the forms of a trial, had liberated the American prisoners, who were free to return to the United States.

WASHINGTON, Monday, June 17.

The Southern Press, a daily, is out.—Messrs. Elwood Fisher and Edwin De Leon are its editors; and Messrs. Sage and Heath the printers.

It is to be devoted to sectional matters, Northern aggressions and in vindication of the rights of the South.

The editors say they have commenced with a full subscription list, and are patronized by many established.

Senator Borland has been called home by family sickness.

BUFFALO, Monday, June 17.

The steamer Griffith, Capt. Rowe, left this port yesterday morning with over two hundred passengers for Toledo, and when within 20 miles of Cleveland, took fire and burned to the water's edge.

The mate who swam ashore and reached Cleveland, reports that only 50 persons were saved.

Over two Hundred lives were lost, among whom were Capt. Rowe and wife.

Two passengers were mostly emigrants.

CINCINNATI, Pa., June 17th.

A very destructive fire occurred in this place this morning, which has involved a loss of $50,000. Among the buildings burned are the Spy printing office, and the railroad depot. Fifty-three families are rendered homeless by this calamity.

Capt. Hagar, of the sloop Vigilant, informs us that on his passage from Providence, yesterday afternoon, when off Hope Island, he saw a small boat with two men in it, apparently coming from Wickford, but seven miles off, and the last time she capsized. Capt. Hagar continues, but before he arrived the boat and men had sunk, he afterward saw a shovel floating on the water. This occurred at 3 o'clock, about one mile southwest of Hope Island; the boat was about 12 feet keel, and eleven mast. Capt. Hagar remains about there more than an hour but saw nothing of the bodies.

NEW VERSION OF THE BIBLE.—That portion of the Baptists favorable to the new version of the Bible, held a meeting in one of the Baptist churches of New York city on Monday, and organized a society called the American Bible Union, adopting a constitution and electing managers. $6000 was the amount of contributions to the fund. An address to the Christian public was adopted.

LARCENY.—In the Circuit Court of the United States, District Court, sitting at Boston, a case was tried on Monday, in which the owners of the ship Palmyra brought suit against her owners for damages in having kept her short of men on a voyage. It was proved that there were deficiencies of crew, Cherokee and water, and the vessel had put in for the sailors were entitled to their wages for such deficiency, and damages for unreasonable detention, the exact number of days to be assessed by a petit jury in equity on that point. The owners were also liable for not stowing the provisions under deck, as the law requires.

☞A FEMALE THEATRICAL PHENOMENON.—An accomplished and beautiful lady, aged only 17, who had shone as a private theatrical in her circle of friends at St. Louis, lately commenced operations by having secretly, under supervision from the refusal of her father to permit her to adopt the stage as a profession. She said that life had no longer charms for her. One of her reasons was characteristic of her devotion. It was, that a copy of Shakspeare would be placed upon her bosom on her coffin!
